

1. Introduction

On 25th July 2016 the Welsh Language Commissioner issued a Compliance Notice under section 44 of the Welsh Language (Wales) Measure 2011 to the Student Loans Company Limited (“SLC”).

Standard Number 164 of the Compliance Notice states:

- “(1) You must produce a report (an “annual report”), in Welsh, in relation to each financial year, which deals with the way in which you have complied with the operational standards with which you were under a duty to comply during that year.
- (2) The annual report must include the following information (where relevant, to the extent you are under a duty to comply with the standards referred to)—
- (a) the number of employees who have Welsh language skills at the end of the year in question (on the basis of the records you kept in accordance with standard 145);
  - (b) the number of members of staff who attended training courses you offered in Welsh during the year (on the basis of the records you kept in accordance with standard 146);
  - (c) if a Welsh version of a course was offered by you during that year, the percentage of the total number of staff attending the course who attended the Welsh version (on the basis of the records you kept in accordance with standard 146);
  - (ch) the number of new and vacant posts that you advertised during the year which were categorised as posts where—
    - (i) Welsh language skills were essential,
    - (ii) Welsh language skills needed to be learnt when appointed to the post, (iii) Welsh language skills were desirable, or
    - (iv) Welsh language skills were not necessary, (on the basis of the records you kept in accordance with standard 148);
  - (d) the number of complaints that you received during that year which related to your compliance with the operational standards with which you were under a duty to comply.
- (3) You must publish the annual report no later than 6 months following the end of the financial year to which the report relates.
- (4) You must publicise the fact that you have published an annual report.
- (5) You must ensure that a current copy of your annual report is available—
- (a) on your website, and
  - (b) in each of your offices that are open to the public.

This document constitutes SLC’s annual report being produced to ensure our compliance with Standard Number 164 and relates to the 2017/18 financial year (the “FY”).

2. Information Categories

2.1 Details of how many employees have Welsh language skills at the end of the FY

Standard Number 145 of the Compliance Notice states that SLC must:

“keep a record (following assessments of your employees’ Welsh language skills made in accordance with standard 123<sup>1</sup>), of the number of employees who have Welsh language skills at the end of each financial year and, where you have that information, you must keep a record of the skill level of those employees.”

At the end of the FY, SLC had 40 employees with Welsh language skills.

2.2 Details of how many members of staff attended training courses offered in Welsh by SLC in the FY (on the basis of the records you kept in accordance with standard 146<sup>2</sup>).

Standard 124 states that SLC:

“must provide training in Welsh in the following areas, if you provide such training in English — (a) recruitment and interviewing; (b) performance management; (c) complaints and disciplinary procedures; (ch) induction; (d) dealing with the public; and (dd) health and safety.”

In the FY, SLC did not provide any training courses to members of staff in Welsh due to the lack of demand.

2.3 Details of the percentage of the total number of staff who attended the Welsh language version of any courses which SLC offered in the FY, (on the basis of the records you kept in accordance with standard 146<sup>3</sup>).

Not applicable due to the absence of any face-to-face training courses provided by SLC in Welsh during the FY. However, although no face-to-face training was provided, SLC did and continues to offer employees 5 Welsh e-modules through the Learning Academy:

- How good is your Welsh?: a self assessment that we ask all colleagues in Llandudno to take, as part of our support for the Welsh Language Scheme;
- Talk Now! Welsh: a beginner level for learning the Welsh language. It is interactive with games, quizzes and assessments and includes a wide range of vocabulary;
- Talk More Welsh: for beginners plus conversation for those wishing to learn the Welsh language. It is interactive with games, quizzes and assessments and includes a wide range of vocabulary;
- Talk the Talk Welsh: aimed at an intermediate level for those wishing to learn the Welsh language. It is interactive with games, quizzes and assessments and includes a wide range of vocabulary; and
- Talk Business Welsh: an intermediate level for those wishing to learn the Welsh language and covers skills at work. It is interactive with games, quizzes and assessments and includes a wide range of vocabulary.

2.4 Details in relation to new and vacant posts advertised by SLC during the FY which were categorised as posts where—

- Welsh language skills were essential,
- Welsh language skills needed to be learnt when appointed to the post,
- Welsh language skills were desirable, or
- Welsh language skills were not necessary, (on the basis of the records you kept in accordance with standard 148<sup>4</sup>);

Between the period of 1st April 2017 until 31st March 2018, SLC advertised the following vacancies which were categorised as posts where:

- Welsh language skills were essential- 19
- Welsh language skills needed to be learnt when appointed to the post- 0
- Welsh language skills were desirable- 24
- Welsh language skills were not necessary – 0
