STUDENT SUPPORT FOR HIGHER EDUCATION IN ENGLAND, ACADEMIC YEAR 2010/11 (PROVISIONAL)

INTRODUCTION

1. This statistical first release presents figures on the financial support awarded and paid to applicants and students or their Higher Education Institution (HEI). It shows final figures for the previous two academic years and provisional figures for academic year 2010/11.
2. Once applicants who were awarded support have their attendance at an HEI confirmed and their first payment made, they are classified as paid students.

COVERAGE AND CHANGES

3. This release shows the number of loans, grants and allowances awarded / paid to full time undergraduate applicants / students or their institutions.
4. It covers applicants and students domiciled in England taking a course in a Higher Education institution in the UK¹ as well as applicants and students domiciled in the EU studying in a Higher Education institution in England.
5. Figures also include postgraduate applicants and students taking their Initial Teacher Training (ITT) course on a full-time, part-time or flexible basis (with the exception of academic year 2010/11 for which part time ITT have been removed from the full time support regulations). All other part-time and postgraduate applicants and students are excluded as they are entitled to different support packages.
6. The release has been extended to include new statistics which separate out the awards and payments of DSA and other targeted support. Eligible part-time students and postgraduate students also receive DSA but they are not within the scope of this publication. The publication also shows for the first time a new breakdown of the loans statistics into provisional awards and final payments. Finally, Tables 2A and 2B from the previous publication have been merged into table 2 and have been re-designed to maintain relevance and provide greater clarity.

PROVISIONAL STATUS

7. Figures for the current academic year (2010/11) are provisional, and are based on the status of applications processed by mid November (two months into the academic year).
8. The processing of applications continues after this time. Although applicants are encouraged to submit their application for financial support well in advance of the beginning of their academic year along with the necessary evidence to allow Student Finance England to process their application in time for payment at start of the term, processing continues through the academic year. Students can apply for support up to 9 months after the start of the academic year and can have their support reassessed if their personal circumstances change significantly. Provisional figures are therefore subject to change until they stabilise and become final.
9. However most student finance applications are expected to have been received and processed by mid November (two months into the academic year). See www.slc.co.uk/statistics for figures on the processing of Student Finance England applications.
10. Final figures for a given academic year are usually published on the following November, 12 months after the end of the academic year, with the exception of Disabled Students Allowance (DSA) statistics, which remain provisional for one year. This is because payment of DSA continues over the duration of the student's course of study.

KEY POINTS

Total Number and Amount of Student Support Awarded (Table 2)

11. Final figures show that 923,100 applicants were awarded some support in academic year 2009/10 which is equivalent to £6,636.8m. This is an increase of 6% on the number of applicants awarded support in 2008/09 and an increase of 12% on the amount awarded in 2008/09.
12. Early figures show that, two months into the 2010/11 academic year (i.e. by mid November 2010), 904,200 applicants had been awarded grants, allowances and/or loans. This is equivalent to £6,903.5m. These figures are expected to change through the academic year as further applications are received and re-assessments are submitted. Figures stabilise later in the academic year and are likely to be final around November 2011.

Awards of Maintenance Grants (Table 3a)

13. In academic year 2009/10, 40% of applicants eligible to a Maintenance Grant who entered Higher Education (HE) under the 2009 arrangements were awarded the full grant of £2,906. 22% were awarded a partial grant and 38% were not awarded a grant (but eligible applicants may be awarded other forms of student support). This represents £462m awarded in grants which is an increase of 5% on the amount awarded to applicants who entered Higher Education in 2008/09 under the 2008 arrangements.
14. Early figures show that, two months into the 2010/11 academic year, 35% of applicants who entered HE under the 2009 arrangements were awarded the full grant of £2,906 - that is new applicants entering HE in academic year 2010/11 and returning applicants who entered HE in 2009/10. 18% were awarded a partial grant. 47% were not awarded a grant but eligible applicants were awarded other forms of financial support. These percentages are expected to change through the academic year as further applications are received and re-assessments are submitted. Figures stabilise later in the academic year and are likely to be final around November 2011.

Disabled Students Allowance (DSA) (Table 3d)

15. The administration of Disabled Students Allowance differs from other financial products in that applicants submit invoices from suppliers (who provide products and services which assist the student in attending higher education) throughout the academic year. This means that the latest final position shown in this publication is for academic year 2008/09 for which 40,600 full time students were provided DSA support amounting to £91.7m.

Other Targeted Support Awards (Table 3E)

16. In academic year 2009/10 final figures show that, overall, a total of £118.3m was awarded to 39,200 eligible applicants in the form of Adult Dependents Grants, Parents Learning Allowances, Childcare Grants or Travel Grants

Average Awards of Maintenance Loans (Table 4a)

17. In academic year 2009/10, 819,500 eligible students borrowed £2,946.0m in the form of a Maintenance Loan - an amount 8% higher than in 2008/09. On average, students took out an income-contingent Maintenance Loan worth £3,590 in 2009/10, compared to £3,520 in 2008/09.

18. By mid November 2010, 822,600 eligible applicants were awarded £3,000.1m in the form of a Maintenance Loan - an amount 11% higher than in 2009/10. This represents a provisional average of £3,650 per eligible applicant, compared to £3,610 in 2008/09.

Average take-up of Tuition Fee Loans (Table 4b)

19. In academic year 2009/10, Higher Education Institutions (HEI) was paid variable Tuition Fee Loans on behalf of 755,200 England domiciled students which amounted to £2,261.8m. This was an average of £3,000 per eligible England domiciled student. The average figure in 2008/09 was £2,920.

20. By mid November of academic year 2010/11, 885,300 applicants were awarded £2,756.7m worth of Tuition Fee Loans - an amount 12% higher than in 2009/10.

FACTORS AFFECTING TIME SERIES

21. There has been a slight change in the way figures have been put together in this year's publication which has improved our ability to show what was actually paid rather than awarded, and also enables us to give a breakdown for the different types of targeted support. Where figures are affected by this change a footnote is included.

22. Due to some delays in the processing of Disabled Students Allowance (DSA) applications in academic year 2009/10, the numbers of students and the amount paid was lower two months into the academic year than in previous years. 2010/11 figures represent a return to the expected levels. The effect can be seen on table 3D (ii).

REVISIONS

23. The corrections and revisions that were introduced to the figures published previously have been carried forward in this statistical first release (for details see SLC SFR 05/2008 and SLC SFR 06/2009).

NOTES FOR EDITORS

36. The figures in this first release have been compiled by the Student Loans Company Limited (SLC). All student numbers and amounts have been rounded to the nearest 100 and £100,000 unless specified otherwise. All totals and averages are calculated from un-rounded numbers.
37. Details of the amounts of loans and grants available in academic year 2010/11 are publicly available in the Student Finance England booklet 'A guide to financial support for higher education students in 2010/11', which can be found on the Direct Gov web site: <http://www.direct.gov.uk>.
38. This statistical first release contains 2009/10 final figures and early in-year awards figures for academic year 2010/11. Students who have not yet applied for support will not appear in these figures (see paragraphs 8 and 9 for more details). Some eligible students may not have applied yet and others may have applied but not yet provided all requested evidence. Also, student's circumstances can change and they may revise their support application. Significant numbers of students revise their initial support application from non means-tested support to means-tested support. Others withdraw from their courses after only one term's payment. Therefore, the figures for academic year 2010/11 are provisional.
39. Due to high levels of public interest in the processing of Higher Education Student Support applications by Student Finance England, the Student Loans Company, in conjunction with BIS analysts released early provisional figures to show the levels of processing and payment of Student Support in England for the 2009/10 and 2010/11 academic years. These were published on the SLC website under "Official Statistics (SFE)" and are accessible at http://www.slc.co.uk/statistics/official_statistics_sfe.html Figures in this SFR are based on more up-to-date information.

THE STUDENT FINANCE SYSTEM

Summary of recent policy changes:

2010/11 New Entrants

40. Part Time Initial Teacher Training (ITT) – New entrants in 2010/11 who are studying on a part time ITT course are no longer eligible to apply for full time student financial support, and instead are eligible to apply for part time student financial support, which include a course and fee grant. Prior year entrants on a part time ITT course remain eligible for financial support includes: for those attending university for the equivalent of 6-10 full time weeks – a part means tested maintenance grant of up to £1,453 (in academic year 2010/11) and a full rate maintenance loan. Those attending university for the equivalent of less than 6 full time weeks are eligible for a reduced rate maintenance loan only.
41. Grant / Loan substitution - Students in lower-income households will have part of their maintenance needs met through a non-repayable Maintenance Grant. So, their entitlement to repayable support through a Student Loan for Maintenance will therefore be reduced to reflect this. In practice, this means that the amount of Maintenance Loan a student can receive (maximum 'Elsewhere rate' £4,950) will be reduced by £0.50 for every £1 of Maintenance Grant entitlement

2009/10 New Entrants

42. Maintenance grant – For new entrants, the household income threshold for maintenance grant support was changed. Although the threshold for entitlement to a maximum grant remained at £25,000, the threshold for entitlement to a partial grant was adjusted from £60,005 to £50,020.

43. Maintenance loan – The non means tested element of the maintenance loan was adjusted - from 75% to 72% of the maximum loan amount. As a result, the means tested element of the maintenance loan was adjusted from 25% to 28% of the maximum loan amount. The amount of maintenance loan available was reduced by £0.50 for every £1 of maintenance grant received. The maximum amount of support available was therefore lower than the sum of the maximum maintenance loan and the maximum maintenance grant.
44. Tax year – From 2009/10, students could for the first time supply financial evidence for the prior tax year for assessment of their application. For 2009/10, this meant that applicants could supply evidence for the 2007/08 tax year when being assessed for means tested financial support. This allowed applicants to apply for student support at an earlier stage than in previous years.

2008/09 New Entrants

45. Maintenance grant – For students entering HE in September 2008 the income thresholds for maintenance grant support were revised. The income threshold for full grant entitlement was increased from £17,910 in academic year 2007/08 to £25,000 in academic year 2008/09. The income threshold for the minimum partial grant was increased from £38,330 to £60,005.

Key elements of the student support arrangements introduced in 2006/07

46. New student support arrangements were introduced for new students entering HE from September 2006. Students could apply for an income-assessed maintenance grant. Students studying in England became subject to tuition fees of £3,000 per year. Loans to cover the cost of fees became available, which students start to repay when they have left higher education and are earning over £15,000. Students continued to be eligible for a maintenance loan.

Maintenance grant

47. A Maintenance Grant was introduced for students who started their course in September 2006 and were subject to variable tuition fees. These students were termed 'current system' students. The new maintenance grant replaced the higher education grant.
48. Under the new arrangements, the maximum amount of grant available in academic year 2010/11 is £2,906, and how much a student receives depends on their income, the income of their household, and their year of entry into higher education. Students receive the full grant of £2,906 if they are 2008, 2009 or 2010 entrants with a household income up to £25,000, or if they are 2006 or 2007 entrants with a household income up to £18,360. Students receive a partial grant, with a minimum grant of £50, if they are 2009 or 2010 entrants with a household income up to £50,020, if they are 2008 entrants with a household income up to £60,005, or if they are 2006 or 2007 entrants with a household income up to £39,333. The equivalent special support grant (of up to £2,906) ensures that students in the Department for Work and Pensions (DWP) vulnerable groups have their grant disregarded when entitlement to benefits is calculated.

Tuition fee loans

49. From academic year 2006/07, students can defer payment of tuition fees by taking out a tuition fee loan. As well as being available to 'current system' students, this option is also available to pre-2006/07 entrants if they make a full or partial contribution to their fixed fees. Students can take out as much or as little fee loan as they choose, up to the maximum amount of fees being charged.

Additional grants and allowances

50. The Government retains as grants and allowances those relating to the personal circumstances of students, e. g. for adult dependant grant, child care grant, parents' learning allowance and disabled students allowances (DSA). Support for some course-related costs, e.g. long course learning, is in the form of supplementary loans. Targeted grants with the exception of DSA are income-assessed.

Access to Learning Fund

51. From academic year 2004/05 hardship funding was amalgamated into one fund, renamed the Access to Learning Fund. Institutions with HE students are allocated funding from BIS to help students from low income backgrounds and those in financial difficulty to gain access to and stay in HE.

Key elements of the student support arrangements introduced in 1998/99

52. New students in 1998/99 received support for maintenance through means-tested grants (comprising about a quarter of the support available) and non income-assessed student loans (comprising about three quarters of the support available). New students from 1999/00, and those who were subject to the new arrangements in 1998/99, received support for living costs mainly through loans which were partly income-assessed. The loans made under these arrangements are repayable on an income contingent basis.

Student loans

53. Repayment of student support scheme loans is linked to income after leaving university or college so that leavers only repay as and when they can afford to. Repayments are at the rate of 9% of income above the income threshold (which was £10,000 up until the end of March 2005 and then £15,000 for all borrowers from April 2005 onwards).

Student support for maintenance (food, accommodation etc.) is provided via a combination of maintenance loans and/or maintenance grants. This table shows how the maximum amount of maintenance support has changed over the past three years using the example of a student studying for the full length of the academic year. Students entering HE under the 2006/07 arrangements are subject to variable tuition fees. The maximum amount of maintenance for those students is higher than for those who entered HE under the 2005/06 arrangement or before who were subject to the lower fixed tuition fees (all or part of which may be paid for them as a tuition fee grant). Those who entered HE in or after 2009/10 can receive a higher maximum amount of money than those who entered between 2006/07 and 2008/09.

This table shows the amount of student support available to eligible students entering HE in academic year 2010/11 from maintenance support and tuition fee support. It uses the example of a student living away from home and studying at an institution located outside London (i.e. the 'Elsewhere' rate in Table 1A). It shows how the amount of support available varies according to the residual income of the student's sponsors (i.e. those the student depends on).

Section 2 - Overview of Support Awarded

Table 2 : Total Number and Amount Awarded for Student Support Applicants domiciled in England[1][14]
Academic years 2008/09 to 2010/11

Highlights

- The final number of applicants awarded student support for academic year 2009/10 was 923,100, which represents an increase of 6% on the previous academic year 2008/09 for which 873,200 applicants were awarded.
- Total student support awarded across these applicants for academic year 2009/10 was £6,636.8m which represents an increase of 12% on the previous academic year 2008/09 for which £5,904.7m was awarded.
- For academic year 2010/11, the early figures two months into the academic year show the number of applicants awarded student finance so far is 904,200 at mid November 2010. The amount awarded so far is £ £6,903.5m. This figure is expected to change in line with the annual cycle of reassessment of student finance applications, which is prompted by changes in the applicants' circumstances and further applications for student finance.

All applications for Higher Education (HE) student finance under full time regulations from Applicants domiciled in England are assessed by Student Finance England (i.e. the Student Loans Company or English Local Authorities). If the applicant is found to be eligible they will be awarded student finance, which will start to be paid once attendance has been confirmed by the institution and the term start date has been reached. Many awards do not lead to payment because the applicant does not secure a place or chooses not to attend. The products awarded to each applicant will depend on several factors: the year that they entered HE; the loans (maintenance loan and/or tuition fee loan) they choose to take, if any; whether they submit financial details to be assessed for a means tested grant; whether they are entitled to a special grant or allowance such as the Disabled Students' Allowance (DSA).

This table gives the total of all the data in the following tables for Applicants domiciled in England. It does not include the Tuition Fee Loans data for EU domiciles, which appears in Table 4B. Figures in the italics indicate that the numbers refer to payments rather than awards.

* For academic year 2008/09 and 2009/10 the DSA, Maintenance Loans and Tuition Fees Loans figures shown above are based upon payments rather than awards. This is because payments are representative of what has actually been received by students. As SLC pay grants together in three instalments, it is not possible to determine amounts paid for the individual grant types.

Section 3 - Grants and Allowances

Table 3A : Distribution of Maintenance and Special Support Grants Awarded to Applicants domiciled in England [1][17]
Academic years 2008/09 to 2010/11

Highlights

- In academic year 2009/10 a total of £1,207.8m was awarded to applicants in all cohorts, who were entitled to a grant. This represents an increase of 21% on the previous academic year during which £998.6m was awarded in total.
- In academic year 2009/10, of the 334,700 maintenance grant eligible applicants who entered higher education under the 2009 arrangements, 40% were awarded full maintenance grant support, compared to 42% of the applicants in 2008/09 who entered under the 2008 arrangements. There was no change to the income threshold for entitlement to the full grant between these years.
- So far in academic year 2010/11 (i.e. by mid-November), 35% of the students who applied for support under the 2009 and 2010 maintenance grant arrangements have been awarded a full maintenance grant. This is 2% higher than the position published in November 2009 after which the proportion receiving a full grant increased to 40% as shown below.

The applicants eligible for the Maintenance Grant are those who entered Higher Education (HE) in 2006/07 or later. This excludes anyone who receives a NHS Bursary. The grant is means tested. Applicants who do not submit financial evidence do not receive a maintenance grant and are shown in the Nil category, Similarly for those applicants whose household residual income is above the highest threshold. The applicants are grouped by Entry Cohort because there have been significant changes in the earnings thresholds (for fuller explanation of the term 'Entry Cohort' refer to the definition in Appendix 2). In academic year 2008/09, the earnings threshold for the full level of grant and the lowest level of partial grant were both increased, causing more applicants to be awarded the grant. In academic year 2009/10, the threshold for the full grant was retained but the threshold for a partial grant was reduced (For more details on the thresholds refer to the section on Student Finance System in the body of this publication). Special support grant awards are included in the maintenance grant figures. Data is effective 14/11/10 because this is the effective date of the reporting data source

Highlights

- The number of applicants eligible to a HE grant in 2009/10 was 22,900, compared to 94,800 in academic year 2008/09. The number of applications for an HE grant awards is in decline as only students who entered HE under the 2004/05 and 2005/06 arrangements remain eligible to receive it.
- In academic year 2009/10, the amount of HE Grant awarded to applicants entitled to it was £5.4m, compared to £26.3m in 2008/09.

The Higher Education Grant was a type of maintenance grant that was put in place in 2004/05 before the variable tuition fees and the Maintenance Grant were introduced in 2006/07. Only students who entered in 2004/05 and 2005/06 were eligible for the grant (plus those who delayed entry until 2006/07 and registered in advance for a gap year), so the numbers are in decline. Anyone who receives a NHS Bursary is not eligible. The grant is means tested. Applicants who do not submit financial evidence receive nil HE Grant as do those whose household residual income is above the highest threshold. The full grant has always been £1,000. The earnings threshold for the full level of grant and the lowest level of partial grant has always been at a lower level than the Maintenance Grant. Data is effective 14/11/10 because this is the effective date of the reporting data source

Table 3C : Distribution of Tuition Fee Grants Awarded to Applicants domiciled in England [1] [21]
Academic years 2008/09 to 2010/11

Highlights

- The number of applicants eligible to a Tuition Fee grant who applied for it was 34,100 in 2009/10 compared to 95,600 in academic year 2008/09. The number of Tuition Fee grant awarded each year declines because only those students who entered HE under the 2007/08 arrangements remain eligible for it.
- In academic year 2009/10, the amount of Tuition Fee Grant awarded to eligible applicants was £8.8m, compared to £45.1m in 2008/09.

The Tuition Fee Grant was put in place when tuition fees were introduced in 1999/2000. It was intended to cover all or part of the tuition fees that students were charged. It stayed in place until the variable tuition fees were introduced in 2006/07. Only students who entered prior to 2006/07 were eligible for the tuition fee grant (plus those who delayed entry until 2006/07 and registered in advance for a gap year). The grant is means tested. Applicants who do not submit financial evidence receive no Tuition Fee Grant (these are shown in the Nil category). Similarly applicants whose household residual income is above the highest threshold receive no grant. The cost of tuition and, hence the value of the full Tuition Fee Grant has risen each year with inflation. The earnings threshold for the full level of grant and the lowest level of partial grant have also risen each year in line with inflation. EU students domiciled outside the UK were entitled to these Tuition Fee Grants. That support has never been included in this publication. Data is effective 12/11/10 because this is the effective date of the reporting data source.

Table 3D(i) : Disabled Students Allowance (DSA) paid in support of full time Students domiciled in England (after academic year end) [1][14]
Academic years 2006/07 to 2010/11

Highlights

- Disabled students Allowance (DSA) are administered separately to other types of financial support. Students submit suppliers invoice over a period longer than the academic year concerned; for this reason figures for 2009/10 remain subject to change.
- Final figures for academic year 2008/09 show that £91.7m was paid is DSA support compared to £79.4m in 2007/08.
- Provisional figures for 2009/10 show that so far 40,400 students have received DSA support to the amount of £82.6m.

Table 3D(ii) : Disabled Students Allowance (DSA) awarded to Applicants for full time support domiciled in England (two months into the academic year) [1]
Academic years 2006/07 to 2010/11

Highlights

- The awards table was provided to show the profile for DSA
- This National Statistic is produced just two months into the academic year at which point only a small percentage of the years Disabled Students' Allowance for 2010/11 will have been awarded. For the 2009/10 academic year DSA applicants awarded, this is approximately one quarter of the number of students paid one year as shown on table 3D(i).

Applications for Disabled Students' Allowance (DSA) are separate to core student finance applications and follow a different process. This table includes those students covered under the full time support regulations and excludes part time students (such as those attending Open University). The majority of DSA applications are received after the term starts as many students do not become aware that they are entitled to DSA support until they have started their course. Only a small proportion of the allowance is paid to the student. The vast majority is paid to suppliers once the student passes on the invoices they receive for equipment or services. Invoices continue to be received well after the end of the academic year which is why the figures are kept as provisional for one year longer than for the other products. Therefore academic years 2009/10 and 2010/11 remain provisional. Data is effective 12/11/10 because this is the effective date of the reporting data source.

Table 3E : Other Targeted Support Awards to Applicants domiciled in England [1][14]
Academic years 2008/09 to 2010/11

Highlights

- In academic year 2009/10, 39,200 applicants were awarded targeted support other than DSA. This amounted to £118.3m an increase of 10% on 2008/09
- Early in year figures for 2010/11 show that 30,900 applicants have been awarded a targeted support so far, which amounts to £102.2m. These provisional figures are expected to increase over the academic year.

This table shows all the non-repayable grants and allowances not covered elsewhere in section 3. Like the Disabled Students' Allowance (DSA) they are all forms of targeted support. All applicants eligible to a maintenance loan can receive the non-means tested portion of the loan. Some choose not to take one even though they might have received other support, such as a maintenance grant. Some do not apply for any support at all. Table 4(ii) shows the relationship between those who took out a maintenance loan and those who could have taken one, using estimates of the eligible student population from BIS. The applicant can choose to take all or part of the basic non means tested element of the maintenance loan. They can receive a higher amount if they submit financial evidence that shows their household residual income is within the range for additional maintenance loan entitlement. From 2006/07 onwards the average maintenance loan decreased because of the introduction of the Maintenance Grant. The amount of maintenance loan awarded is partly reduced in proportion to the amount of maintenance grant awarded. Data is effective 12/11/10 because this is the effective date of the reporting data source and 31/08/2010 is used for consistency in this time series.

Table 4A(iii) : Maintenance Loans requested and awarded to Applicants domiciled in England (two months into the academic year)
Academic years 2008/09 to 2010/11 [1]

Highlights

- By mid-November of the academic year 2010/11, 822,600 applicants have been awarded Maintenance Loan which amounted to £3,000.1m. By the same point in 2009/10 academic year £2,704.4m had been awarded to 748,900 applicants.
- This table shows an early indication, two months into the academic year, of the likely out turn of payment. Figures are therefore subject to change. The provisional number of maintenance Loan awarded in 2010/11 to eligible applicants is 822,600 which is an increase of 10% on the 2009/10 equivalent.

Highlights

- In academic year 2009/10, Higher Education Institutions (HEI) were paid Tuition Fee Loans on behalf of 785,600 students supported to study in England which amounted to £2,344.2m compared to 696,900 paid in 2008/09 academic year amounting to £1,981.1m. On average, students took out a Tuition fee loan of £2,980 for 2009/10 academic year, compared to £2,840 in 2008/09.
- The average tuition fee loan for those entering higher education from 2006/07 is higher than that of those students who entered prior to 2006/07, due to the introduction of variable fees.

Table 4B(ii) : Tuition Fee Loans awarded to applicants domiciled in England and EU (Outside UK) applicants studying in England (two months into the academic year) [1][28] Academic years 2008/09 to 2010/11

Highlights

- By mid-November of academic year 2010/11, 885,300 applicants have been awarded a Tuition Fee Loan, which amounted to £2,756.7m awarded compared with the lower figure of 816,300 applicants awarded by mid-November 2009/10 academic year which amounted to £2,465.2m.
- The final number of students paid a Tuition Fee Loan tends to be lower than the provisional number awarded (two months into the academic year). For instance in 2009/10, the number of students paid is around £30,000 less than the provisional number awarded. This happens because not every applicant who is awarded a loan remains in Higher Education long enough to allow payment of the loan.

All applicants who are eligible for student finance and are charged tuition fees can take out a Tuition Fee Loan that will cover all or part of the fees charged. The payments will be made directly to the institution on their behalf. Those who entered prior to 2006/07 and who do not receive the full tuition fee grant (see Table 3C) can take out a Tuition Fee Loan but it will be much lower than for those who entered from 2006/07 onwards where variable fees were charged. Data is effective 14/11/10 because this is the effective date of the reporting data source and 31/08/2010 is used for consistency in this time series.

Table 4C(i) : Tuition Fee Loans Paid to Higher Education Institutes on behalf of Students domiciled in England according to country of study (Final)[1][14]
Academic years 2008/09 to 2010/11

Highlights

- In academic year 2009/10, Higher Education Institutions (HEI) were paid Tuition Fee Loans on behalf of 760,800 England domiciled students which amounted to £2,267.8m compared to 675,800 paid in 2008/09 academic year amounting to £1,918.3m. On average, students took out a Tuition fee loan of £2,980 for 2009/10 academic year, compared to £2,840 in 2008/09.
- The average tuition fee loan for those students studying in England is consistently higher than that of students studying elsewhere (predominantly Wales, Scotland and Northern Ireland). This is likely to be due to the variations in student funding arrangements in place by the devolved government administrations.

The tuition fees charged across HEI's in the UK vary from country to country. The average amounts in this table illustrate the effect of those differences. Data is effective 14/11/10 because this is the effective date of the reporting data source and 31/08/2010 is used for consistency in this time series.

FOOTNOTES

[1] See Appendix 2 for definitions of terms used.

[2] The rate of maintenance grant and loan is applicable to students normally domiciled in England.

[3] Using 2010/11 prices based on the September RPI, excluding mortgage interest payments at the beginning of each academic year.

[4] A means-tested Maintenance Grant of £2,700 was introduced in 2006/07 (£2,906 in 2010/11). Students in receipt of these grants are not eligible for the £1,000 HE grants.

[5] The amount of Maintenance Loan available is reduced by £1 for every £1 of Maintenance Grant received up to a maximum of £1,292 (£1,260 in 2008/09). The maximum amount of support available is therefore lower than the sum of the maximum Maintenance Loan and the maximum Maintenance Grant.

[6] The amount of Maintenance Loan available is reduced by £0.50 for every £1 of Maintenance Grant received. The maximum amount of support available is therefore lower than the sum of the maximum Maintenance Loan and the maximum Maintenance Grant.

[7] The amount of Tuition Fee Loan is equivalent to the tuition fee charged, up to a maximum of £3,290.

[8] Based on the 'Elsewhere' rate of loan

[9] Students in lower-income households will have part of their maintenance needs met through a non-repayable Maintenance Grant. So, their entitlement to repayable support through a Student Loan for Maintenance will therefore be reduced to reflect this. In practice, this means that the amount of Maintenance Loan a student can receive (maximum 'Elsewhere rate' £4,950) will be reduced by £0.50 for every £1 of Maintenance Grant entitlement.

[10] Reduced by £1 for every £5 of income above £25,000.

[11] Reduced by £1 for every £15.17 of income above £34,000.

[12] The full 'Elsewhere' rate of maintenance Loan

[13] All students are entitled to 72% of the appropriate student loan, but the remaining 28% is subject to means-testing.

[14] This table is affected by the change in methodology introduced in this publication as described in paragraph 6. The affected tables are:

Table 2: This table now shows a breakdown, for each support type, of the awards and payments. Payments only relate to figures on maintenance loans, tuition loans and Disabled Students Allowance (DSA). In previous publications, figures on DSA and other targeted support were grouped with figures on Maintenance Grant.

In addition, the methodology for identifying total number awards has been refined.

Table 3D: This is a new table showing the awards and payments for the Disabled Students Allowance.

Table 3E: This is a new table showing the awards for other targeted support grants and allowances
Section 4 Loans: This publication shows for the first time a new breakdown of the loans statistics into provisional awards and final payments.

[15] The number of people applying to Student Finance England (i.e., the Student Loans Company or English Local Authorities) and successfully being awarded or paid support of some kind under the arrangements in place at the time.

[16] For the number of applicants awarded and paid, the total represents the count of individuals with at least one type of student support. This is different from the sum of the rows above. For the amount awarded, the total is the sum of the rows above.

[17] Means-tested maintenance grants are available to students entering HE from 2006/07. It includes the special support grants payable to vulnerable groups of students who may otherwise have their DWP benefits reduced, those studying part-time or flexible PG ITT courses with a combined study and teaching practice weeks of between 6 to 10 weeks are eligible to apply for the reduced rate maintenance grant of £1,453 (academic year 2010/11). Students within this group who were awarded the reduced rate grant will be categorised as in receipt of a partial maintenance grant.

[18] Those that are eligible to apply for maintenance grant but were not awarded a grant because their household residual income is greater than the upper earnings threshold to receive a partial grant, or the applicant has not supplied household income information. Note that those applicants who are receiving an NHS bursary are omitted from the grant eligible population.

[19] Excludes those applicants who do not apply for any financial support. It includes awards to students who subsequently withdrew from their course or suspended study during the academic year. The eligible population for the Maintenance Grant comprises all students who entered HE in 2006/07 or later under the 2006/07 arrangements.

[20] Constituent parts may not add to totals due to rounding.

[21] Student support scheme students continuing study in 2009/10 under pre-2006/07 arrangements were assessed to contribute up to £1,255 to their fees depending on family income. 1999/00 is the first year in which Tuition Fee Grants were channelled via SLC to the HEIs. 2005/06 is the last entry year for eligibility for Tuition Fee Grants.

[22] Includes students on courses where the fee support was not subject to income-assessment (e.g. PGCE courses, and some other ITT courses, and designated courses at private institutions). Excludes those studying Part Time or Flexible PG ITT Courses with combined study and teaching practice periods of between 6 to 10 weeks.

[23] Includes the cost of need assessing of the applicants

[24] Rounded to the nearest £10

[25] Students who entered HE prior to 2006/07.

[26] Students who entered HE from 2006/07.

[27] The number will continue to increase as application continues to be approved and this may change the average value of loan.

[28] Tuition Fee loans are payable to Institutions on behalf of students normally domiciled in England who attend an HE course anywhere in the United Kingdom as well as to students from the European Union attending HE courses in England.

[29] The Tuition Fee loans for 2010/11 will be incurred by students at the point of payment to their HE institution. Generally 50% will be paid in February 2011. 50% will be paid in May 2011.
